

Dr Riaan du Preez

Riaan qualified as a veterinarian from Onderstepoort in 1991. After military service he practised as a livestock production veterinarian in Bultfontein, Free State for 14 years. After completing his MBA from University of Free State and Boston Business School in 2003, he entered veterinary industry. He worked as Business Unit Manager – Sub-Sahara Africa for Intervet/Schering-Plough/MSD. Riaan was President of the South African Veterinary Association from 2011-2013. Riaan is currently the General Manager: New Business Development for Afrivet. He has recently embarked on a PhD study of “The impact of the 4th Industrial Revolution on the Veterinary Profession”.